Come ye citizens and strangers,
Miners, sailors and Western rangers,
Listen to the truthful story,
Of Frank Campbell of Victoria.
He in truthful words will tell you
Just the goods he has to sell you.
Mind ye now he isn't joking,
If you are fond of chewing and smoking,
Or if you are given to snuffing,
What he keeps does not need puffing.
He has brands will suit you really,
Tobacco users prize them dearly;
From all parts of the "Old Dominion"
He has stock, and his opinion
Is that none can suit you better
They will please you to the letter.
His Cigars, just from 'Ih vana,'
Smoke in the most lovely manner;
Meerschaum pipes of style and fashion
Just to suit each taste and passion;
And it is in Canada stated,
His Tobaccos are celebrated;
Green Seal, Straight Cut, all go,
Big Lick, Big Cut, Wind Sap, also
All the Fine Cut Brands for chewing
That your teeth will never ruin;
Pipes to suit the inveterate smoker
Cards for playing sinch or poker,
Pipes of briar and stems of cherry
More than any man can carry;
It would take a week to tell you
All the things he has to sell you.
While in town you may be stopping
At the "Adelphi Corner" drop in;
Campbell you'll find at that location
Ready to give you information,
Or to see you well provided,
With what is by all decided,
The smoker's and the chewer's glory,
The best and cheapest in Victoria.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

(Ex Army Medical Staff.)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July, 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousand of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—diphtheria, fever, croup, ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in diarrhœa, and is the only specific in cholera and dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of epilepsy, hysteria, palpitations and spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in neuralgia, rheumatism, gout, cancer, toothache, meningitis, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was CHLORODYNE.—See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—"CHLORODYNE is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [December, 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr J. COLLIS BROWNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London.

A GOOD PLAN.—THE MOST PROFITABLE WAY for dealing in stocks is by combining many orders and co-operating them as a whole, dividing profits pro rata among the shareholders, according to the market. Each customer thus secures all the advantages of immense capital and experienced skill, and can use any amount from $10 to $10,000 or more, with equal proportionate success. FRENCH BREAD!

THE FOLLOWING WORDS FROM THE LAST Berlin's Scientific and Medical Review will induce everyone caring for his health to buy the Bread:

"Why this dreadful disease (Dyspepsia) has been spread so much, and especially over the new continent, is easily explained by the daily use in Bread and Cake Making of the so-called Yeast Powders, too often adulterated by poisonous but cheaper powders."

With French Bread there are no Yeast Powders and consequently no

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 25TH, 1879.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants Exchange, is our authorised Agent in San Francisco.

LORD SALISBURY ON EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

Lord SALISBURY made a great speech at Manchester on the 17th inst. He justified the policy of the Government point by point, strong hostility to Russia being very noticeable throughout his remarks. In regard to the fact that Turkey had not occupied the Balkans, he said: "In the present state of the Russian Empire, Turkey has no reason to expect aggression. The badness of the government of Turkey or any other country would never justify us in handing over great strategic positions to any Power whose aggressions threaten the happiness and independence of the world. But there are other points of the Treaty of Berlin beside the occupation of the Balkans. If you do not trust the Turkish sentinel on the ramparts, you must trust the Austrian sentinel at the door. Since the Austrian occupation of Novi-Bazar, the advance of the Russians beyond the Balkans and the Danube is impossible. In the independence and strength of Austria rest the last hope of European stability. If the assertion of the newspapers that a defensive alliance has been formed between Austria and Germany proves true, all who value the peace of Europe will hail it as glad tidings of joy." SALISBURY proceeded to defend the Government's policy with regard to Afghanistan, the main principle of which would continue to be defence, not dominition. Turning to home affairs, he observed that the Liberals, in endeavoring to frame a programme, selected, like a neighboring nation when choosing a form of Government, that which would divide them least. In consequence of the principles encouraged by the former Liberal legislation, the Separatist movement in Ireland had now attained unprecedented proportions. He warned the people of the effect the accession of the Liberals to power would have on both home and foreign politics. He felt that the English people would prefer to maintain a firm front at home, so that, with the assistance of worthy allies, they might maintain peace and right abroad." The Times, after a review of this speech, says: "Such is the substance of the vindication with which Lord SALISBURY is prepared to appeal to the country, and it is stated with a force which the opposition will find it hard to repel. They have denounced our policy so vehemently that, as Lord SALISBURY urges, "their success at the next election would naturally be accepted by Europe as a sign that the work of the present Ministry was to be undone." He has known in a word that the interests of the Empire, and not of a party, will be at issue when the country is appealed to, and he has given good reason to believe they have hitherto been safe in his hands."

ENGLAND, RUSSIA AND AFGHANISTAN.

Russia, after leading with her false counsels Afghanistan into a war with Great Britian and then abandoning her, has the unprecedented impudence to propose a division of the territory. On the 14th inst. SCHOUVALOFF, the Russian Embassador, had an interview with SALISBURY, when he was instructed to broach the question as to the arrangement respecting Afghanistan. SCHOUVALOFF proposed that Russia shall have jurisdiction of the eastern part of Afghanistan, while England shall take possession of the western part as far as the Hindoo Koosh. SALISBURY declined in must emphatic, even harsh terms, saying England would not allow Russia to meddle in any way in the matter. He said that the future of Afghanistan has to be settled by England, exclusively. SCHOUVALOFF, seeing SALISBURY's stubbornness, proposed various other plans of settling the difficulty, but SALISBURY refused to consider these propositions. Thus ended the interview. Count MUNSTER, German Embassador, has had several interviews with SALISBURY during the past two weeks, and it is believed that his explanations respecting the present political situation on the continent influenced SALISBURY in his emphatic language to SCHOUVALOFF. It is also rumored that the English government has succeeded in obtaining certain assurances from the Shah of Persia of such a nature as to satisfy BEACONSFIELD that in the event of complications arising between England and Russia, Persia will not side with the latter. The haughty reply of Lord SALISBURY is in keeping with the Indian policy of Great Britain, and Russia, isolated from the rest of Europe, will scarcely dare to show her face in Afghanistan.

The Reason Why.

My reason for buying Cooking and other Stoves and Parlor Grates at the Albion Iron Works is because I can purchase them there at prices much less than they can be imported for. The quality of the goods is equal, if not superior, to the imported article, and by buying them I get my money back, if not directly I do so indirectly, because the money I pay for an Albion Stove is kept in the country. Do not let unprincipled dealers sell you the imported article when you can help to save the country by buying Stoves, &c., at the Albion Iron Works, Store street, or of any respectable dealer. Examine for yourself and take no other. *

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY. — Messrs. Shears & Partridge, of London House, have pleasure in announcing the arrival, per steamship City of Chester, of their first shipment of Millinery, Silks, Satins, Velvets, &c., &c. Messrs. S. & P. take this opportunity of notifying their patrons and the public generally that, although they do not adhere to a strictly cash business, they make a point of selling their goods as cheaply as any other house in the City. 2w*

OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—A good deal of excitement has been created in Hull by an announcement that 200 cases of smallpox exist in that city. No precautions have as yet been taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

Mr. Duplessix, accountant of the Inter-colonial railway, died at Ottawa yesterday.

The death is announced of Judge Pope, of Prince Edward Island, a brother of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

Rev. J. Jacobs, of the Sarnia reserve, had an interview with Sir John Macdonald, Minister of the Interior, this afternoon at Stadacona Hall, in relation to the enfranchisement of Indians. Sir John promised to have changes made in the present laws, so that Indians adopting professions will in future receive their share of money the same as the others.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 7.—While standing at the wharf on Monday a horse belonging to Mr. Jas. Zwick became so frightened at the sound of a steamboat whistle that it fell dead in the harness.

Mr. Frank Macon, formerly local editor of the Ontario, died last night of consumption.

TORONTO, Oct. 9.—Robt. W. Turner, the druggist clerk, who was struck on the head by Lawrence Smyth, a commercial traveller, with whose wife he had been too intimate, died this forenoon at the hospital, after putting in a terrible night. His own father went to him last evening, and beseeched him to tell how it all happened, but he obstinately refused to say one single word about it, and died without his deposition being taken. Smyth, who feels his position very keenly, will now be tried for murder, but as there was no witnesses to the assault, except the prisoner's wife, and her evidence will not hold good, it is thought possible he may escape punishment. An inquest will be held this evening. Mrs. Smyth, the woman who caused all the trouble, and is the mother of five children, is a daughter of the late Mr. Larue, notary of Aylmer. She is a pretty, attractive little woman and was a model wife until she met the murdered man. Her husband, it is said, has not proved himself in days gone by the most faithful of men.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—James Blair, a well-known wealthy citizen of London, was to-day sued at the Assizes for breach of promise, the plaintiff being M. M. Woodman, a single woman of Goderich. At the time of making the acquaintance of the defendant the plaintiff was living with her father in the Township of Colborne, County of Huron. The plaintiff was a young lady of good repute and genteel birth, well educated, and in every respect the equal of the defendant. In March, 1876, the defendant visited the farm of the plaintiff's father and there made the acquaintance of the plaintiff, then about 19 years of age. He visited the house on business with plaintiff's father. He appears to have been smitten at first sight. After having inspected the farm it was about 12 o'clock, and with the usual generosity of country people, he was invited to take dinner, which he accepted, and during the meal he evinced signs of admiration, but which of the daughters he was enamored of did not become quite apparent. He left, taking the names and addresses of both daughters, and about a week afterwards he sent plaintiff a book of "Moore's Melodies" as a slight token of his esteem. The young lady politely wrote him a note of thanks, and that drew forth from him a letter full of love and sweetness. He also sent several pieces of music, and in one letter he said he felt like embracing her in an "ecstasy of joy" when he next saw her. He also sent her a pair of gloves, in a letter accompanying which he expressed himself in endearing terms. In the month of June he wrote to say that he was coming to visit them, and said in his letter among other things: "I am often persuaded my wants will be administered to my sweet Minnie, and that my aching head will be allowed to rest upon my sweet innocent bosom of my sweet Minnie." Plaintiff met defendant on the bridge at the entrance to the town of Goderich, when a poetical effusion was presented by him to the plaintiff, entitled "The Meeting on the Bridge." In April, 1877, defendant came up to plaintiff's house about 9 o'clock on a Sunday morning, giving her the making of a handsome dress, but could not succeed in getting his letters back; but at a second visit he induced the plaintiff, in her mother's absence, to burn the letters in a stove upon the promise that he would send her one more letter which would amply recompense her for the loss of all the rest. After the letters were burnt defendant commenced to cool off. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff and $4,500 damages.

BORN AT SEA.—On Thursday night as the steamship China from San Francisco was approaching Esquimalt a passenger whose name we could not ascertain, but who is a native of Switzerland, was delivered of a fine male child, the accouchement being performed by Dr. Hamilton of Redwood City, Cal., who was also a passenger on board. The father of the child is a native of France, so here a somewhat interesting question as to nationality arises: Mother Swiss; father French; child born on an American steamship flying the Stars and Stripes in British waters.

The Warbling Pinafore; or the Musical Sausage.

Historical Sketch—Its effects on the Mental, Moral, Physical and Harmonical Tendencies of a People.

BY J. HEYWOOD.

[Copyright secured in accordance with the Act of the Canadian Parliament, 1879.]

The Warbling Pinafore or Musical Sausage was the original conception of E. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, whose ideas have been adopted, improved, embellished and brilliantly illuminated by the author of this little sketch. It was composed expressly for H. M. S. Pinafore and is now extensively used in the British army and navy. No ship goes to sea or army takes the field without a supply. The secret of the manufacture being patented the inventor imparts the information that into each sausage is introduced a NIGHTINGALE'S TONGUE. These delicate morsels are obtained only with great difficulty and after the expenditure of large sums of money; but the sausage is still sold cheap. Adelina Patti, the reigning Queen of Song, will never undertake to sing the part of Rosina in "Il Barbiere" without having first fortified herself with a delicate repast of Musical Sausages, then no words can convey an idea of the exquisite purity of her voice; always mellow, always equable, which vibrates without effort and each note of which expands itself like the bud of the rose. The mellow sweetness of her voice, so rich and pure that every note is like a pearl, honey sweet and silver toned; her voice rings out full and clear like a siver bell; the clearness of her notes, the precision of her intonation, the fertility of her invention and the facility of her execution are displayed in brilliant flights and lavish feoriture; the ease with which she sings is perfectly captivating and the neatness and elegance of her enunciation, combined with the sweetness and brilliancy of voice and perfect intonation, render her execution faultless. Its effects are ravishing. She is a captivating Rosina, charming, exquisitely delightful, and can warble like a thousand nightingales. Her singing of the lesson song at the pianoforte in particular is given with extraordinary power and effect. Her Rosina has never been equalled since the sunny days of the brilliant Malibran, the bewitching Sontag and the glorious Alboni. Her execution of the pretty mockingbird is one of the most perfect specimens of vocal power ever heard. The warbling Pinafore or Musical Sausage may be eaten with benefit and pleasure at any hour of the day or night, the only direction being to brown nicely before serving, and when eaten it will bring joy, peace and happiness to the family circle and cause all to raise their voices in ecstatic euphony. It is like a thing of beauty—a joy forever, and the oil of gladness to bruised hearts. A meal of these Sausages will cause crying children to smile through their tears and keep them singing throughout the day. When evening closes round the household the whole family will warble themselves to sleep, their last song being "Oh! what Pain it is to Part with Thee"—meaning, of course, the Pinafore Sausage.

Forbes and Carey.

A somewhat turbulent scene occurred during a lecture on the Zulu war delivered at the Shoreditch Town Hall, London, by Mr. Archibald Forbes. In commencing his lecture, Mr. Forbes stated that he would introduce no subjects of a controversial character, and therefore he refrained from criticising the action of Lord Chelmsford. When, however, he had described the death of the Prince Imperial, he stated that he would only speak of brave men that evening, and therefore he (the lecturer) must ask to be excused from saying anything about Lieutenant Carey. This remark, which was uttered with considerable emphasis, was received with some cheers, but almost immediately a volley of hisses was raised, and cries of "Withdraw that statement," and "Why did you spare Chelmsford?" were heard above the din. The audience refused to allow Mr. Forbes to proceed, and three cheers for Carey were called for amid evident sympathy. Mr. Holmes, M.P. for Hackney, appealed for order, saying that he held his own opinion on the subject, but it was only fair to allow the lecturer to go on. This was sullenly agreed to by the discontents, but it was some time before the former enthusiasm of the meeting was recovered.

WESLEYAN CHURCH ORGAN.—The work in connection with the erection of the new organ in the Wesleyan Church will be completed to-day. It is stated by a well-known organist who has tried the instrument that the stops are exceedingly sweet in tone and of rare rotundity. The organ recital to be held in this Church on Wednesday evening next will, therefore, doubtless prove a great treat to all lovers of good music—music such as the "king of instruments" is alone capable of producing.

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.—It may not be generally known, but the fact nevertheless exists, that by the provisions of a by-law "For the Better protection of the City against Fire" the owner of every house or block of buildings is required to provide and keep constantly on the premises a good, strong ladder, long enough to reach the whole height of the principal building. The by-law from which this excerpt is taken was passed on August 2d, 1862, and is still in force. The penalty for neglecting to comply with the provision is £10 sterling or a term of imprisonment not exceeding one month.

THE steamer Wilson G. Hunt left at 8 a.m. yesterday for New Westminster with the following passengers:—Miss Livingstone, Miss McCulloch, Mrs. D. Johnstone, Mrs. Wood, Miss Wood, Mrs. T. E. Ladner, Mrs. Fraser, Messrs. H. Nelson, J. V. Wells, Wood, H.E. Ladner, M. Kinshiles, H.W. McGowan, J. F. Rider, F. McKeefe, Ross, Wm. Woodward and several others.

THE steamer Enterprise left at 8.30 a.m. yesterday for New Westminster and way ports, having waited for the mails by the steamship China. She had on board the following passengers:—Mrs. Trew, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Parmetter, three Sisters of St. Ann's, Rev. Mr. Basket, Messrs. W. Jackson, Puetz, Dobell, A. Phillip, Burrell, P. Johnson, J. Graham, R. Graham, Deas and others.

CHRISTMAS BEEF.—Fifty head of cattle will arrive to-day from Palmer's Ranch, Okanagon, for Messrs, Goodacre & Dooley, Queen's Market. These cattle are the first instalment of Xmas beef, and will be stall-fed at Strawberry Vale farm. As usual the Queen's Market will have the best meats during the Christmas Holidays. *

LOADING.—The iron bark Syllet (498 tons) is loading general merchandise at Liverpool for this port.

Municipal Police Court.

[Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.]

FRIDAY, Oct. 24.

George Alep, given into custody by Peter Girard and charged with stealing two boxes of tobacco and a carpet-bag, containing sundry articles, from the steamer Cariboo-Fly.

The prosecutor, who is night-watchman on Spratt's wharf, deposed that at about half-past 1 o'clock yesterday morning he met the prisoner coming away from the wharf carrying a carpet sack and a bundle. When the prisoner saw witness coming he dropped a box of tobacco and it rolled down the bank near to Mr. Lenevre's house; witness found that the prisoner had another box of tobacco with him and he made him take it back to the steamer; gave him in charge of the mate and went to fetch a policeman. The first one he met was special constable Hassard. Gave the prisoner into custody; the two boxes of tobacco were part of the freight of the steamer Cariboo-Fly and marked "J. W., N.," meaning, John Wren, Nanaimo.

The prisoner was remanded until Monday next for the production of further evidence.

Mr. H. C. Courtney, instructed by Mr. R. Smith, appeared for the defence.

Book Notice.

The sciences of physiognomy and phrenology are daily growing in popularity and rapidly developing into maturity. The older science of the two, and the one which is based solely upon nature, is physiognomy, but for some years after the death of Lavater, it seemed to languish for lack of exponents, and made very slow advances. In 1872, however, Dr. Joseph Simms, a well-known scholar and scientist, who, for twenty years previous had been devoting himself exclusively to the study of the laws of human nature, gave to the world a book entitled "Nature's Revelations of Character," a comprehensive, scientific treatise on the organs of the mind and body, with rules for their government and improvement. In this work, which is highly spoken of by the leading European and American journals, the author claims, and justly, as we think, to have founded a new and superior system of physiognomy. In any event Dr. Simms is himself a man of ripe culture, and varied experience, who reads with correctness the characters of all with whom he comes in contact and his book is so fruitful of practical information and worldly wisdom, that, considered apart from its scientific excellencies, it cannot fail to amuse and instruct its readers.

THE IVY CLUB BALL.—Pavillion Hall last evening was the scene of unalloyed enjoyment. The hall was filled with devotees of Terpsichore who "chased the flying hours with nimble feet" until an early hour this morning. The ball was given by the Ivy Club, and the company present were the invited guests of that public-spirited body of young gentlemen. The number of ladies present was very large, a fact which argues favorably for the popularity of the Club with the fair sex. Every one who participated in the dancing complimented the committee and Mr. McCrimmon upon the excellent state of the floor, the beauty of the decorations and the superior character of the music. As the guests entered the hall they were confronted at either end with the genial words, "Welcome to the Ivy Club." On the music-stand was the inscription, "1877. Ivy Club. 1879." Overhead were suspended flags, banners and bannerets, the effect being pleasing and tasteful. There were twenty-two dances on the programmes, new cards being furnished after a sumptuous supper. The arduous duties of floor-manager were discharged by Mr. E. A. McQuade, whose excellent administrative qualitses have been on several occasions tested. He was ably supported by Messrs. G. Rudge, J. Partridge, R. Jones, W. Anderson and other gentlemen. The ball will be long remembered by all who took part in it as the pleasantest held in Victoria for many years.

THE CONSOLIDATED BANK CASES.—The witnesses in the case of the Consolidated Bank of Montreal before the Grand Jury were Messrs. John Monk, F. H. Burnett and Lonergan. The indictment charges that on the 9th July the Directors "did unlawfully and wilfully make a certain wilfully false and deceptive statement in a certain return partly printed and partly written, respecting the affairs of the said bank, which said statement was wilfully false and deceptive; that certain liabilities of the said Bank, to wit, other deposits payable on demand, amounted on 31st Dec., 1878, to $2,654,864, and it was therein falsely stated that certain other liabilities of the Bank, to wit, other deposits payable after notice on a fixed day, amounted to $1,964,305.60, and it was therein falsely stated that no amount was due on that date by the said Bank to other banks in Canada, and falsely stated that the specie amounted to $270,252.96, and that the Dominion notes amounted to $401,165."

THE steamship China, which arrived at Esquimalt at half-past 10 o'clock on Thursday night, left San Francisco at noon on the 20th inst. and during the first 30 hours out experienced a strong northeast gale. Subsequently she had southeast winds with thick and rainy weather. At 6 p.m. on the day of her departure from San Francisco she met the steamer St. Paul and at 3 a.m. on the 22nd inst. she met the steamship City of Chester, both bound for San Francisco. The China left Esquimalt for Puget Sound ports at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

BARK PRINCESS ROYAL.—This vessel will complete her cargo for England to-day, but it is somewhat doubtful whether the tides will permit of her proceeding to sea until the full moon, as she is deeply laden and draws 18 feet of water.

MORE ADVANCES.—In the San Francisco market green coffee has advanced 2¾c. per lb. and teas have from 5c. to 10c. per lb. Canned salmon has also an upward tendency.

CANNED SALMON.—The San Francisco Commercial News of the 20th quotes canned salmon, 1lb. tins, at $1.30@$1.50 per doz., according to brands.

THE steamship Victoria is having an extra deck put on at Vallejo street wharf, San Francisco.

MARINE SALE.—The ship Bonanza has been sold to the Puget Sound Commercial Co. for $30,000.

COAL at San Francisco remains at figures long before quoted. B. C. is in full supply.

THE Canadian Illustrated News of the 11th inst. contains an excellent portrait of the late Dr. Carrall, Senator.

Sydney Exhibition, 1879, and Melbourne Exhibition, 1880.

We have before us a copy of the Australian and New Zealand Gazette, describing the exhibits at this great colonial display from which we clip the following:—

PIANOS.

The display of pianos at the forthcoming Exhibition will naturally be striking and varied. The culture of music, both in a public and a domestic sense, has of late years made great advance in the Australian colonies, and we are glad to see that our leading manufacturers here are actively taking advantage of the obvious opening presented for bringing good instruments under the notice of an appreciative public. Foremost among British exhibitors in this class will be Messrs. Chappell & Co., who are already and have so long been famous for their pianofortes, harmoniums, and indeed for musical instruments and appliances in general. It has been aptly said that the rapid progress made by English colonists in the art and science of music has taxed to the utmost the efforts of Europeans to supply the increasing demands for musical instruments of better quality and greater strength than those hitherto imported. It is with the object of supplying these demands that Messrs. Chappell & Co. have manufactured expressly for the colonies the iron-framed grand and upright pianofortes now exhibited. These pianofortes possess the sweetness of tone which characterises good English-made instruments, elasticity of touch, great power of endurance against all changes of temperature, and fine finish of cabinet work. The high quality of their beautiful instruments has been widely approved by the leading musical authorities of Great Britain and the Continent, nor is that anyway strange, seeing that the mechanism is made with the greatest care, and is of the finest finish. The touch is easy and sensitive to the fingers. The tone is rich and of great sustaining power. The bass is strung transversely, giving greater length to the strings, which are carried across the centre of the sounding board (over the steel strings), and are radiated over a large surface, thus greatly increasing the freedom and power of tone. The framework or bracings, which are subjected to the strain of the strings, being made in one solid casting of iron, ensures the instrument remaining in tune through all changes of temperature or climate. The exhibits of Messrs. Chappell & Co. are sure to excite admiration from all musicians who give them a trial.

Messrs. A. B. GRAY & Co. are the agents in British Columbia for this firm's instruments.

MR. HORETZKY, C. E., while coming down the wagonroad by stage last week, was taken seriously ill and had to be left at a wayside house for treatment. He will probably arrive down to-day. Mr. Horetzky, it will be remembered, has just explored the country from the coast to Peace River.

PILOTAGE DUES.—By a recent Order in Council the payment of dues within the limits of Nanaimo Pilotage District is rendered compulsory.

NAVAL.—H. M. S. Penguin will sail from Esquimalt for Panama on Monday next.

TO SETTLE.—Mr. Seth T. Tilley was one of the passengers by the China. He comes to stay.

CROWDED OUT.—Several articles and communications lay over till our next issue.

FOR CHEAP ULSTERS AND JACKETS go to J. York's, Fort street. *

MR. CAMBIE, C.E., is expected to arrive to-day.

THE clock of Mr. Redfern and the whistles are about five minutes "out."

FOR CHEAP HOSIERY go to J. York's Fort street. *

Canada.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—The dense smoke on the river continues, and navigation is entirely suspended. The Sarmatian, which left yesterday for Quebec, after a prolonged detention here from the above cause, only got forty miles down the river, where she was forced to anchor. Princess Louise and suite may have to remain over at Quebec some days, awaiting the Sarmatians' arrival.

It is understood the Marquis of Lorne will visit England about Christmas and return with the Princess.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Bush fires are so extensive along the line of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railway that a gang of men are engaged night and day battling the flames.

IRONTON, Oct. 18.—Samuel Jones and his two children were drowned in the river to-day by the sinking of a small overladen coal boat.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 19.—Jno. Walker, a cattle dealer in Drescon, has absconded. His liabilities are $20,000. Donald McLean, indorser of Walker's paper to a large amount, is also missing.

HALIFAX, Oct. 10.—A curious case occurred here last night. On Wednesday night a female sought protection at the police station. She said she was to be married the night following to a corporal of marines. Last night she turned up at church, but instead of the corporal a private of marines appeared to fill the post of bridegroom. He had a license, and she either did not notice the change for a moment, or did not care and the ceremony was performed. It turned out the corporal was drinking at a saloon to nerve him for the expected task, while the private, who had previously arranged to cut him out, was being married. All three subsequently met in a bar room. The bride was wild with grief and throwing her arms around the neck of the man who was to have been her husband swore she would never leave him. The successful and unsuccessful suitors then indulged in a long and hard fistic combat. The bride refuses to live with her husband and he left her.

PERIQUE CIGARETTES.—Frank Campbell, the well-known tobacconist, has just received his first shipment of La Belle Perique Cigarettes, which are entirely manufactured from the celebrated Perique Tobacco and fitted with patent corn-husk mouth-pieces. Their flavor is exceedingly agreeable and their aroma very fragrant. Mr. Campbell is sole agent for the sale of the Cigarettes in British Columbia. *1m ENGLAND.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—A favorable change has come over the aspect of the wool market, a brisk inquiry having been lately experienced and considerable purchases of English wools having been made for America at a rise of a penny per pound on previous prices. There is considerable animation in manufactured iron trades at Stockton, Coassett and Middleton. Recent activity in crude iron has only slightly diminished. The principal firms in North Staffordshire have again slightly advanced the prices of finished iron and are in receipt of further large orders from the United States.

TALMAGE AT HOME.

He "Receives" at the Tabernacle.

AND WEDS ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES.

[N. Y. Sun, 4th inst.]

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage was publicly received by his congregation and his Brooklyn friends last night. Five thousand persons crowded the Tabernacle, and half as many more stood in the street without, while twenty-five policemen guarded the entrance, to keep them from adding to the crush within. The Tabernacle was bedecked with flags and flowers, and silken gonfalcons hung from the gallery. The superscription, "Glory to God," burned in gas high up the organ, beneath an illuminated star. Then, between the American and the English flags hung the picture of Dr. Talmage. The pulpit was a mass of floral decorations, and the word "welcome," built of tea roses, in huge letters, stretched across the organ face. The kid-gloved ushers paced down the aisles with baskets of flowers and floral emblems, which were placed wherever there was a spare spot. An enterprising publisher had printed the "Talmage March," as composed by George W. Morgan, and distributed it with advertisements of the "Little Duke" and "Fatinitza." U. S. district attorney Tenny had charge of the meeting, and with him on the platform were chief justice Jos. Neilson, mayor Howell, ex-mayors Schroeder and Hunter, the Rev. E. P. Ingersoll, Revs. C.N. Sims, J.O. Peck, D. Farley, Hugh Smith Carpenter and others.

Dr. Talmage entered by the front door of the Tabernacle leaning on the arm of elder H. O. Tucker. A broad smile occupied his countenance. The organist was playing "Home, Sweet Home," with chimes accompaniment and cornet obligato. The congregation arose and waved handkerchiefs, hats, canes, fans and mantles, and cheered. Dr. Talmage bowed and smiled and smiled and bowed. He made good time in getting down the aisle, and when he reached the platform the mayor and two ex-mayors of Brooklyn, the lawyers, the doctors and the clergy arose and shook hands as he passed along. Dr. Talmage looked at the floral decorations and seemed bewildered.

After prayer by Dr. Farley, Mrs. Evelyn Lyon Hegeman sung, "Thy people shall be my people and thy God my God." When she was encored she paraphrased the familiar song into "The darkest spot on earth to him was home, sweet home." Her tuneful notes brought tears to the eyes of Dr. Talmage. As she finished he jumped to his feet, whirled about and seemed on the point of breaking up the programme by delivering a speech. Then he spied the Rev. Dr Ingersoll climbing the pulpit stairs, and worked off his enthusiasm upon him.

Bernard Peters, editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times, said that the Brooklyn presbytery had tried to bury Dr. Talmage, and stabbed him with cruel though unsuccessful wounds, but no assembly, no presbytery, no synod should bury him.

The Rev. Dr. Lansing said that a good vacation was part of a successful ministry. It was like a pause in music. Dr. Talmage had gone off in the positive degree, come back in a comparitive, and was there in the superlative degree.

"He's too big a man to be pocketed by a little Presbytery," was the exclamation of the Rev. J. O. Peck, and this brought down the house. "A jury of microscopes could not find heresy in his belief," added the speaker.

Mr. John Winslow made a comparison of Talmage's reception abroad to Beecher's, whereat Mr. Talmage hid his face with one of his hands.

"Why should a clergyman wear plaid vests at tea?" asked the Rev. Dr. Sims, pastor of the Washington avenue Methodist church. Then he added that that was a villainous conumdrum put to him at a tea party which he had just come from. The answer was, "To have a check on his stomach." Dr. Talmage rolled in his seat with laughter.

The formal speech of welcome was then made by United States District Attorney Tenney, who said that Dr. Talmage had added new lustre to the American name. The speaker welcomed him back to his ecclesiastical shooting gallery.

As Dr. Talmage came forward he was received with a great display of handkerchiefs, fans, hats, and canes. He said that it was the happiest moment of his life. He never could and never would forget the scene before him, and he did not so much give them his thanks as he gave thanks for himself that he was their servant. "Any man's theology is good enough for me," he said, "if he loves God and does his level best." Then, looking all around him, he added: "Well, my friends, how've you been all summer? I feel like saying, as Daniel O'Connell said once when he got back to Dublin, "How are you, boys, and how are the women who own you." Then he described Ireland as beautiful, adorned with a silver necklace of Killarney lakes and crowned by the Gaint Causeway. "I met Patrick Campbell in London," he went on, "and he told me if I saw Patrick Campbell in Brooklyn to give him his love." As he said this Dr. Talmage levelled his forefinger at superintendent of police Patrick Campbell, who was in the audience, much to the official's confusion.

After a running sketch of his visit to England, Dr. Talmage whirled his arms, brought his hands down to a level, and said: "In the name of God, I declare the banns of eternal marriage between England and the United States, and what God has joined together, let no man put asunder."

After his speech, Dr. Talmage took his position in the center of the house, and kept his hands, feet, tongue, and eyes going until he had received all his congregation.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE
—EFFECTED BY—
California Elastic Truss!

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS CO., W. J. Horne Proprietor—Dear Sir: I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of rupture of thirty years' standing, by one of your incomparable Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago. I cannot describe the suffering, both physically and mentally, that I have undergone during that period; and now I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the ease and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect supporter. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on and feel that I am PERFECTLY CURED. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer anyone to me on the subject of its merits I am truly yours, ALFRED J. BURKE,
